

Adler Wallach & Associates, Inc.

Your Trusted Partner in Debt Recovery Since 1992

With over four decades in the industry, AWA's expertise and reliability in the debt collection field is unrivaled. By leveraging the latest technology and consumer-centric strategies, AWA is pushing forward in a largely stationary industry.

US-Based Leadership Team with a skilled team across many sectors, from healthcare to finance.

Modern Tech Stack with native and strategic integrations to maximize accuracy and efficiency

Government-Grade Security to keep your data and ours secure

Certificates of Compliance for everything your IT team can dream up, and probably some they can't.

Live Agents ready to take calls with your consumers or patients while complying with your guidelines for resolution every time

Machine Automation Tools that drastically increase efficiency and eliminate human errors

Digital Communications First

Gone are the Land Lines, and here to stay are the days of call screening and, for many, an aversion to speaking on the phone at all.

We recognized this trend and established highly successful strategies to reach people the way they prefer in ways that builds trust and confidence.
